Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

The Bull and the Goat

Worksheet · Grades 2–5

Comprehension Questions

1. Why did the Bull hide in the cave?
2. How did the He-Goat react to the Bull's presence?
3. What did the Bull say to the He-Goat regarding his fear?
4. What lesson does the story teach about taking advantage of others in distress?
5. In your own words, why do you think the Bull was not afraid of the He-Goat?

Vocabulary Exercise

Match the words on the left with their correct meanings on the right.

Word	Meaning
1. Bull	A. A male goat, often known for its horns
2. Lion	B. A large, powerful animal, often seen as a king of the jungle
3. Cave	C. A natural underground space or hollow
4. Shepherd	D. A person who herds and tends to sheep
5. Distress	E. Extreme anxiety, sorrow, or pain

Writing/Reflection Task

Reflect on the moral of the story. What do you think is the most important lesson? Write your thoughts below.

Remember, this story is a timeless moral story that encourages us to consider how we treat others, especially in difficult times.