Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

The Citizen and the Snakes

Worksheet · Grades 9+

Comprehension Questions

1. What was the initial goal of the Public-spirited Citizen?
2. How did the Citizen feel after failing to secure the National political convention?
3. What accident occurred when the Citizen leaned against the druggist's show-window?
4. What moral lesson can be derived from the Citizen's reaction after the incident with the snakes?
5. How does this story illustrate the concept of doing what you can, even when faced with failure?

Vocabulary Exercise

Match the words in Column A with their meanings in Column B. Write the correct letter next to each word.

Column A	Column B
1. Citizen	A. A feeling of sadness or disappointment
2. Convention	B. A person who resides in a particular place
3. Dejection	C. A formal meeting for discussion or decision
4. Reptiles	D. Cold-blooded vertebrates that usually have scales
5. Public-spirited	E. Concerned with the welfare of the community

Writing or Reflection Task

Reflect on the moral of the story. What does it mean to "do what you can" in your own life? Write your thoughts below.

Consider a time when you faced a challenge but chose to take action anyway. What did you do, and what was the outcome?

This worksheet can guide discussions about moral stories for class 7 and encourage storytelling with morals among students.