Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

The Lion, the Cock, and the Ass

Worksheet · Grades 9+

Comprehension Questions

1. Who were the main characters in the story?
2. What event triggered the Lion to run away?
3. How did the Cock feel about his ability to scare the Lion?
4. What was the Ass's reaction to the Cock's pride?
5. What moral lesson can be learned from this story about confidence and self-perception?

Vocabulary Matching Exercise

Match the words on the left with their correct meanings on the right.

| Word | Meaning |
|---|---|
| 1. Braying | A. To make a loud, harsh sound |
| 2. Terror | B. A loud cry made by a rooster |
| 3. Superstitious | C. An intense fear or panic |
| 4. Proud | D. Having beliefs not based on reason or logic |
| 5. Uncommon | E. Rare or unusual |

Writing/Reflection Task

Reflect on the story and answer the following questions in the lines provided.

1. What does this story teach us about being proud of our abilities?
    1. Can you think of a time when someone underestimated you? How did you feel?

    2. In your opinion, what is the most important lesson from this story?

Remember, meaningful stories often carry moral lessons that can help us understand ourselves and the world better. Enjoy your reflection!