Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

The Traveler and His Dog

Worksheet · Grades 2–6

Comprehension Questions

1. What was the Traveler doing at the beginning of the story?
2. How did the Dog respond to the Traveler's demand to hurry up?
3. What lesson can be learned from the Dog's response?
4. Why might the Traveler blame the Dog for the delay?
5. Reflect on a time when you might have blamed someone else for a delay. What happened?

Vocabulary Exercise

Match the words on the left with their correct meanings on the right.

Word	Definition
Traveler	A person who journeys from one place to another
Delay	To cause something to happen later than expected
Wagging	Moving back and forth quickly, usually referring to a tail
Loiterer	A person who lingers aimlessly or without purpose
Blame	To hold someone responsible for a fault or wrong

Writing/Reflection Task

Reflect on the moral of the story. Write a few sentences about a time when you realized that you were responsible for a delay in your own plans. What did you learn from that experience?